

Scoring Rubric for Superhero Cape Design

Points	1	2	3	4
Creativity	The design might be copied from another established design.	A unique design was created.	Materials and the design were interesting and unique.	Interesting materials were chosen with a purpose. Materials were used in a unique way and the design is unique.
Message	The message tells of a super power, but the relevance to fighting cancer is unclear.	The idea of a positive message is there, but it is unclear from just looking at the cape.	A positive message of strength and hope is explained in the registration form and is incorporated on the cape.	The cape gives a positive message of strength and hope to kids battling cancer. The message is obvious and wearing the cape feels empowering.
Design	A store- bought cape was decorated, but decorations may not be hardy or neatly done.	A store-bought cape was decorated and crafted with quality.	The cape was sewn from scratch and crafted with neatness, however the cape may not be hardy.	The cape was sewn from scratch and crafted with quality. The cape is hardy and will stay as intended through time. This is especially important in the case of winning capes being gifted to kids fighting cancer.